

Protect what you love.

Online estate planning documents and tools to protect your family, choices and assets.

As an educator and a frontline hero, it's in your DNA to nurture and care for those around you. Especially in this COVID-19 environment, you also need to care for yourself by protecting what you love. Gentreo makes it easy, fast and affordable to create online estate planning documents and tools to safeguard your family, choices and assets.

I don't have an estate plan - why do I need one?

Everyone needs an estate plan. Without one, a court may have to make important decisions for you, like who cares for minor children and what happens to any assets you have. Gentreo helps you create, store and share your estate plan to protect the people, pets and things you care about most. Then, securely store and share important documents and information and easily update them as your life changes.

Gentreo makes it easy, fast and affordable to protect what you love.
